

Trustees manage the business and material affairs of the church, other than the Investment Funds. They are responsible for insuring that church property is cared for to the extent that funding permits.